ARE YOU READY?

Gather your own team from your church, campus, friends, or family. Once each person in your group completes an application, we will make all the arrangements. If you are on your own, you can choose a ready-made team to join. We will provide bilingual leaders, so if you only speak English, come anyway!

The cost will include airfare, insurance, food, lodging, in-country travel (if not using own vehicle in Quebec), and a service fee. The costs listed are estimates and subject to change. Team members must meet vaccination entrance requirements of the country to be visited.
