“Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness!

You have given me relief when I was in distress.

Be gracious to me and hear my prayer!”

Psalm 4:1 (ESV)

Big Challenge, Big God

David and Lilla Langford, partners in our “Adopt a High School” project, praise God for the 57 new pastoral chaplains trained last year and the 57 biblical libraries in French now on their way to 57 high schools in the Aru and Adi areas of the DRC. In total, 69 of the 284 high schools run by the Africa Inland Church have libraries and trained chaplains! The Langfords are already planning the next two-month training session in the Kivu province, expecting to equip 60 new chaplains and provide them with biblical libraries to support the high school students they serve. “This is a big challenge,” the Langfords write, “but we have a big God!” They request prayer for the safe arrival of the 57 130-book libraries. The high schools average 500 students each.

The Langfords also request prayer for their missionary journey next month to France, one of the most difficult mission fields in the world. They praise God for the contributions received to partially cover their budget and ask for prayer for their outreach and teaching in Eglise EssenCiel in Lens to strengthen and encourage the church and for David’s preparations of six expositions on the book of Malachi before leaving.

Summer Service

Before serving as a summer intern through SF at Camp des Îles in Quebec, Laurey Johnson will minister to children stateside. Through Child Evangelism Fellowship (CEF), Laurey will mentor and prepare devotions for team leaders and plan activities for the teens attending CEF's training camp. She will also help teach children at her church's vacation Bible school and other CEF Bible clubs. She asks for prayer for wisdom in planning the content for the teens, health, and dependence on God for all of the things He's called her to this summer.

Evangelism in the DRC

In June, Beautiful Feet partner Pastor Jacques Luwaku will lead an evangelism training conference for 300 evangelists in the DRC. Thanks to your generosity, each participant will receive a copy of Kevin de Young's What Is the Mission of the Church?, for which SF strategically arranged printing at the print-on-demand center in Kinshasa. Please pray for Pastor Jacques and for each evangelist participating in this life-shaping event.

Prayer for Haiti

SF partner Galilée J Périlus, a pastor and director of the CEFA Bible school, asks for prayer for:

- Peace and security in Haiti, that God would calm the storms of violence and bring safety to the people
- Provision for those in need, that the Lord would open doors for food, clean water, and medical care
- Wisdom for Haiti's leaders, that God would guide them to govern with justice, integrity, and love for the people
- Spiritual revival, that the Church in Haiti would stand strong, bringing hope, unity, and the light of Jesus Christ
- A solar-powered system for the Bible school
- Books for the library
- Financial support to continue the classrooms' construction

Pastor Galilée exhorts us to “stand together in faith, believing that God hears our prayers and will bring restoration to our land.”
