Our Beautiful Feet partner Pastor Jacques Luwaku Kulembikisa is leading a training event for 200-300 evangelists June 12-14th at the Centenary Protestant Cathedral in Kinshasa, DRC. Thanks to your generosity, each participant will receive a copy of Kevin DeYoung's book What Is the Mission of the Church?, which is the event's theme. Pastor Jacques has shared that mobilization and logistics have been a challenge and requests prayer for the Lord's help in overcoming these setbacks.

FIT for Action

Next Thursday, SF's France Impressions Team (FIT) will unite in Paris, France, before taking a high speed train south to serve at the Iméaf print shop in Montélimar. In preparation, FIT members have bonded at four team-building orientation sessions, and Lynn Lockwood (now on sabbatical from the SF board) was commissioned by Mountain View Presbyterian Church. Beyond offering much-needed relief to the print shop's team, FIT members will share song, testimony, and a homily at a retirement home; lead singing, participate in a children's club, and present an allegory to children at the Phillips' local church; as well as enjoy some sightseeing to learn about the persecution and subsequent flourishing of French protestants in the region. Most of the team flies out of Paris July 1st. Please pray for each team member in their preparation and in their time of service.

Free Magazine for Kids

Would you like to help cultivate a heart for missions in your children or grandchildren? Do you hope to open their eyes to the scope of the French-speaking world and its need for the Gospel? What if you could read them stories about children who are making a difference? We're delighted to share the latest issue of Impressions for Youth magazine with you. Enjoy the inspiring allegory “The Bird with Too Many Eggs,” testimonies of real-life kid missionaries, and fun puzzles too! If you'd like printed copies to share with your family, a Sunday school class, or another children's group, please reach out to Angela.Brandle@synergiefr.org.

She Said Yes

SF's short-term missionary Laurey Johnson was just engaged to Ian! Please pray for Ian and Laurey as they prepare for marriage and for Laurey as she prepares to fly to Montréal at the end of the month to serve as an intern at Camp des Iles.

May we wait patiently on the Lord as we bring these requests before Him.
