FRANCOPHONE

“Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances;
for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.”

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18 (ESV)

Bibles to Liberate Prisoners and Leaders

to SF donors for their sensitive hearts in responding to the great need for Bibles in the DRC. Please pray for Pastor Luwaku and for the influential leaders to whom he plans to give the Bibles: military officers in Kinshasa prisons, judges, and magistrates.

Books and Chaplains Changing Lives

SF partner David Langford is currently serving in the DRC, engaging with church and ministry leaders. One such leader is high school chaplain Yanga Reckem, whose school received the first library in our "Adopt a High School" project. Yanga shared a testimony about a young woman who said that Yanga was responsible for her good marriage. Books from the library on marriage, discipleship, and the importance of purity inspired her to keep her virginity until marriage. Yanga is also learning how to do Christian summer camps where students can worship, study the Bible, and take workshops to gain various hands-on skills. One young man who learned masonry from a chaplain-led workshop said that his training allowed him to buy land, build a house, marry, and become part of a team building a huge city church. Please

Recommended Children's Books

Publications pour la Jeunesse Africaine (PJA) is a publishing house offering biblically rich, beautifully wrought children's books in French. Written and designed by talented African writers and artists, these hidden gems share faith-fortifying stories with an African flavor. PJA Director Gregory Burgess recently shipped our Director of Communications eight of these books, which are listed on SF's Resources page. Her son devoured them—and asked to hear them read again and again!

Some of the books bring Bible stories to life afresh. Others reveal inspiring, little-known tales from the past, including the story of church father Tertullian and pioneer Émilienne Mboundou-Mouyabi. One favorite tells a story of a young girl who learns to prayerfully trust God rather than be afraid. These books will resonate with children living in Africa and open cultural vistas for children elsewhere. With lively illustrations and theological heartiness, these books are sure to delight readers the world over. To read more about each of these books, click the button below.

Chairs Needed

SF partner Pasteur Galilée J. Perilus, the director of CEFA Bible school in Haiti, praises God for how the school is touching lives each day through education and spiritual guidance. However, there are insufficient chairs for the growing number of students, who sometimes must share seats or stand. He asks us to pray for 60 chairs to allow students to attend classes in proper conditions. Pastor Galilée writes, "We value and depend on your prayers."

Thank you for rejoicing with us in all God is doing in the francophone world!
May we continue in thanksgiving and ceaseless prayer.
