God Opens a Door to Seniors in Lachute, Canada

The Lord's glory was witnessed in Lachute! The Médaillon d'Or seniors' home responded favorably to BLF Canada Director Toe-Blake Roy's request for the African Watoto evangelical children's choir to sing in the home as part of their tour. Tears streamed down Toe-Blake's face as he witnessed the impact on the elderly people as the children glorified God in song, and some shared testimonies. Last January, God allowed the regional French evangelical churches to gain the trust of the administration and be involved at the senior home, which led to this glorious opportunity. Please pray that this door will remain open as the churches seek to minister to the seniors.

Floods Threaten Camp des Îles

SF partners Toe-Blake and Linda Roy of BLF Canada shared that spring rains and snow melt now threaten the island camp with floods. The camp is safe for now, but staff are preparing for a possible emergency evacuation. Amidst this challenge, the camp director's home was deemed a health hazard, so the director and his family are seeking alternative housing. The Roys thank God for a new website and a team from Ontario who will come at the end of May to prepare the camp for summer campers. Please continue to pray for this essential Gospel-sharing ministry, shining a light in a place where only .6 of 1% of the population is evangelical Christian.

Synergy in the DRC

SF partner Leonard Kiswangi, director of the Oasis Media Center in Kinshasa, reports that the print-on-demand facility successfully printed and delivered 600 copies of Suis-moi (Follow Me) by David Platt and Le choix de la pureté (The Purity Principle) by Randy Alcorn, both paid for by donors to SF. The books' recipient, SF Beautiful Feet partner Pastor Jacques Luwaku, plans to use the books for upcoming training conferences. Please praise God for this beautiful synergy between our partners in the DRC, and pray that the books would spark heart transformation in readers and their communities.

95 High Schools in the DRC to Receive Bibles

Partner David Langford's church has agreed to purchase 20 French Bibles for each of the 95 high schools where there is a trained chaplain. This will make a huge difference in these schools. Please pray for the students to be transformed by reading God's word.

David has funds for 11 more libraries. That means 20 libraries of the 26 needed for the next shipment are funded.

Keeping Children Safe

Please pray for SF Child Safety Advocate Katy Doebler and the Child Safety Group meeting on April 28th to add final touches to our new Child Safety Policy and Handbook. We want all children within our sphere of ministry to be cared for in the best way possible as we minister to them.

Thank you for joining us in crying out to the God who hears and delivers!
